

Three Royals

6 0 1

Chapter 1 by Magdalene

There once were three Royals who ruled three entirely different and same kingdoms. All had gone through the other one's troubles and riches, just all at different times but in the same world.

King Apollo of the Kingdom of the Future is going to be a blonde, plump, young man. Or old. No one really knows how old King Apollo will be for this will be the Future. You can be anything in the Future. And, currently in the Future, they are winning wars against unknown planets throughout the universe with high tech weapons.

Queen Ava of the Kingdom of the Present is a slender, middle-aged woman with brown hair and blue eyes. She is a very wise ruler and she lives in the kind of world we are living in now. Her wisdom leads the world into a bright and successful Future.

King Richard of the Kingdom of the Past was a black-haired, blue-eyed, horse-riding, sword-fighting young man who had inherited the land just a little while ago before you were reading this story. King Richard had known about the Present and Future but he never had talked to them for he was afraid that it would change the Past.

Wise King Richard was afraid of the Future (not so much the Present) so he had sent spies to the Future. They had soon come back spouting predictions from their sad little mouths. Having stolen serum from the Present, King Richard healed his spies but one prophecy remained. A prophecy of the Future. Something that King Richard and the Future and the Futurists were not aware of. Now it was time to see what would happen.
